

E-Shopping System Web Development

Client Background and Business Requirements:

The client is government intuition which to provide strategic, operational and administrative management functions for trading.

The client provides a comprehensive B2C e-commerce platform for the business and consumers users to trade online. It includes 19 subsystems including category, online payment, shopping cart, check-out, etc. Beyondsoft takes the full ownership of the project and involves in the development the entire system.

Beyondsoft Solution :

- After reviewing client's business needs, Beyondsoft set up a professional web development team to handle this project.
- Beyondsoft takes the full ownership of the project and involves all activities during the project lifecycle.
- Requirement collection and analysis, conceptual design, database design, and detailed design, code and unit testing, full cycle of testing for functionality, performance, use case, compatibility, etc.
- Bug fix, deployment, maintenance and support
- Build up the automated testing framework to expedite the testing process

Client Benefits:

Deliver the system on schedule

