

Online Store and Backend System Development

Client Background and Business Requirements:

The client is a fast growing B2C company selling blue-ribbon consumer goods in China since 2006.

The client is currently selling 2,991 Categories and 67,799 Goods to multi-millions customers, and shipping to 170 countries.

The project aims to develop the web online store and back-end management system to support client's large volume business transaction. It provides biggest platform connecting Chinese manufactures and international buyers. As a strategic technical partner of the client, Beyondsoft helps the client developing online store and backend system.

Beyondsoft Solution :

Architecting, Design, Coding, Testing

Client Benefits:

N/A

